SPIRITUAL GROWTH

The Heart of ABIDING

Jesus said, "Let not your hearts be troubled." That's a great word of encouragement, even for us today. There are so many things that cause us to worry and have anxiety in the world today. We need to lean on and depend on this promise from our Savior.

A good theme for our present culture would be "The Cardiac Age." Many of us have troubled hearts today. Rising crime rates, rising costs of living, international crises, political corruption, escalating violence not only in Third-World countries but in our own neighborhoods—all this and much more brings deep concern to our hearts. The picturesque phrase Jesus used is literally,

"Don't let your heart shudder."

How do we do this? "Trust in God; trust also in me." Again, the words here tell us not to just do this one time, but to "keep on keeping on trusting." That's how you do it.
