Think on These Things

You may have seen the message on a church sign that reads: "CHCH What's missing? UR" It's a message meant to draw a chuckle, but also to make the reader think about his/her place within the body of Christ. Just as a body that is missing a part is incomplete, just as a jigsaw puzzle that's missing a piece is incomplete, so is the church incomplete without each member in attendance. I know that sometimes a person will be absent for one reason or another, but that person is missed when he/she is absent. Hebrews 10:25 says, "not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching."

Friends, we take time for the things that are important to us. I pray that not only participating in small groups, as well as large-group worship, but also finding our place to serve the Lord in His church, will become a priority to us all. So much so that when we have to be absent our hearts will ache until we can return. I pray that instead of finding excuses not to assemble together, we will look forward to every opportunity that we are given to come together with other believers in order to worship and serve our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Just something to think about as we go about our week.

Love and blessings,
Trace
