

Think on These Things

Tomorrow is Labor Day, the unofficial last day of summer. On June 28, 1894, Congress designated the first Monday in September as a legal holiday. Many people take advantage of this day by prolonging their weekend, cooking out, dove hunting, or some other recreational activity. Because of all the busyness in our lives and schedules, many of us enjoy having the extra day off to rest or to catch up with family or friends.

You have heard the saying, "I need a vacation to rest from my vacation" or something along those lines. Why is that? I think it's because we so fill every moment of our day with activity that even when we have a chance to relax, we aren't able to do so. I'm pretty sure you have also heard someone say, "No rest for the weary", right? Well, in Matthew 11:28 Jesus tells us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

This Labor Day, I hope you will take Jesus at His word and come to Him seeking the rest He promises to give. In fact, the next time you are so overwhelmed with your "To Do" list that you feel like giving up, I pray that you will come to Him for rest. He promises that He will give it; why not take Him up on it?

Something to think about as we go about our week.

Love and blessings,

Trace

Children's Ministry Update

What's New with R210 kids?

ABC BIBLE VERSE CHALLENGE

This year R210 kids are memorizing 26 verses – 1 for each letter of the alphabet.

We are challenging everyone in the church to do this with us. Verses are available at the R210 booth in the foyer.

MISSION PROJECT

We are still collecting aluminum cans for Taiwan Sunshine – a ministry in Taiwan for children with special needs.

Cans are collected in the church fellowship hall. Thanks for all your help!
