

Think on These Things

“We are not reservoirs, but channels of blessing, to share with others what God has graciously given to us.” - Warren Wiersbe

This statement applies to every area of our lives, whether it be “having this world’s goods”; having an ability to teach or mentor someone; taking time to “rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep”; or going and telling someone “what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He has had compassion on you.”

Jesus said to His disciples in Matthew 10:8b, “Freely you have received, freely give.”

When we realize that every good thing we have comes from God and that He has shown us such grace and mercy, we should be anxious (in a good way) to be “channels of blessing” to others. May we thank Him for blessing us so, and may we always be open to His leading.

Something to think about as we go about our week.

Love and blessings,

Trace
