

Think on These Things

By the time you read this, the elections and all of their endless commercials, flyers, and other propaganda will be OVER! I know that many, including mail carriers and average citizens, will be breathing a collective sigh of relief. Unfortunately, there will continue to be much political talk and much frustration and anger on all sides, no matter how the results come out. As I was thinking about all of this and on all the turmoil that is in our country and the world, the Holy Spirit brought a verse from God's Word to mind: "Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth!" Psalm 46:10 NKJV

No matter if your candidate won or lost, God is still in control! No matter what the pundits say, what the media reports, or even how you may feel about the elections, God is still on His throne! If things are overwhelming on the world stage or in your individual circumstances, you can take heart that God is still God and that there is no one greater. Take time today and reflect upon this verse and promise. You'll be glad you did.

Just something to think about (and rejoice in) as we go about our week.

Love and blessings,

Trace

With the proceeds from our Silent Auction, we were able to raise $1,000 for Hurricane Relief

We will begin building our Christmas backdrops for the Sanctuary the week of November 14.
