Think On These Things

Friend; noun - "a person whom one knows, likes (has a strong liking for), and trusts". A friend is someone who is closer than a casual acquaintance or associate. I have heard it said of a friend that he is one who knows both good and bad things about you, but likes or loves you anyway. A friend is someone you can talk with and one who will listen to you. He/she is also one who will speak the truth to you in love, even if it is uncomfortable. Proverbs 17:17a says that "A friend loves at all times" and Proverbs 18:24 tells us that "A man who has friends must himself be friendly, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother." Let me ask you the same questions I have been asking myself: "Am I a friend or am I an acquaintance? Do I love at all times or do I abandon when things become inconvenient for me? Do I show the love of Christ to others, even when I am tired or having a rough day myself? Do I show myself to be friendly or selfish? Am I a friend (like Jesus) who sticks closer than a brother?" The list goes on, but I think you get the idea. Here's one more: "When a person shows up here at FRBC am I welcoming them or I am ignoring them?" I want to challenge you today, just as I have been challenged, to seek to be a friend to someone today. You never know what God may bring about as the result of a simple, welcoming, warm "Hello" or a well-timed word of encouragement. You never know what God will use to be "the start of a beautiful friendship."

Something to think about as we go about our week.

Love and blessings,

Trace

GriefShare

Begins Sunday, Feb. 5 @ 5:00p

If you went through the Helper Training I need your help to assist me during the sessions. I have placed a sign-up sheet on the table in the Foyer, and if you can give me two or three weeks of help no one will have to do so much.

I desperately need your help.
