Think on These Things

Have you ever felt like you were drowning beneath an ocean of pain, problems, or other personal challenges? Have you ever wondered: "Why me, Lord? Why is this happening to me? Why are you letting this happen? Don't you know (or care) how much I'm hurting?" If you are feeling this way now, "struggling 'neath a load of care", I want to share a promise with you from II Corinthians 12:9: "And He said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect (complete) in (your) weakness.'" Jesus was speaking to Paul here in response to Paul's pleading for Him to remove a source of suffering in his life. The striking thing is that this promise to Paul also applies to each and every person who is suffering today; "My grace IS sufficient for you..." When we understand that grace is an undeserved, unmerited favor that Jesus gives to us as we cry out to Him in the midst of our storms, then we can begin to see that He cares very much about our pain and struggles. That thing that is plaguing us, by His grace, can become something by which we give Him praise! So, no matter what you may be going through right now, remember His promise to us: "My grace IS sufficient for you..."

Something to think about as we go about our week.

Love and blessings,

Trace
