Think On These Things

Moses stated in Psalm 90:12, "So teach us (LORD) to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom."

I don't know about you, but I do not want to stand before the LORD on that day and be ashamed that I've wasted the time He has given me on this earth to make a difference for Him. I've preached many funerals and been to many cemeteries and have often wondered about how the person lived their "dash". It gives one pause to realize that life consists of the dash between one's date of birth and one's date of departure. So often, we make great plans and have great aspirations and great intentions, but often fall short in our execution of these plans. I came across this anonymous quote that sums up many a life: "Between the great things we can't do and the little things we won't do, the danger is we shall do nothing at all." Therefore, the verse we began with is a great verse to make our closing prayer: "So teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom."

"Well done, good and faithful servant..." are the words that I long to hear on that day, but if I don't live my dash well, in His strength, and to His glory, I am only fooling myself to think that I'll ever hear them. Something to think about as we go about our week.

Love and blessings,

Trace
