Think on These Things

Psalm 121:1 states: "I will lift up my eyes to the hills--from whence comes my help?"

Where do you go for help when you need it? Do you lift up your eyes or do you look around or within unto friends or your own strength, resources, etc? Where, or to whom, you look in times of trouble tells a lot about a person. The hills around Jerusalem represented a strength, a strong place, a place of refuge for the Jews who lived there. They had often called unto the LORD of those hills and were frequently reminded of His unfathomable strength, a strength which those immovable, protective hills brought to mind. Sometimes what Almighty God has created in nature (mountains, oceans, vast deserts, powerful rivers, etc.) serves to remind us of just how awesome our Creator is. "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament shows His handiwork." Psalm 19:1

In answer to the question: "Where does my help come from?", the psalmist replies: "My help comes from the LORD, who made heaven and earth." Psalm 121:2 I sincerely hope that is our genuine answer also, for there is no greater source of help anywhere, either on earth or in heaven. So the next time you need help, look up and cry out to the LORD with the faith of a child, knowing that He is infinitely able to help you.

Something to think about as we go about our week.

Love and blessings,
Trace

COMING TO LAGRANGE JUNE 24 - JULY 1

MISSION SERVE will be bringing just over 100 youth and adults to LaGrange to do mission work on homes in the Calumet community. We need help hosting these work groups. Your church can...

- Host them at your church on Sunday morning
- Provide lunch for them Monday-Friday at the work site.
- Meet the resident and continue follow-up after the work is done.
- Pray for and encourage the workers

If interested, contact Pastor Trace for more information
