FRANKLIN ROAD

BAPTIST CHURCH

Think on These Things

"Thank you" hardly seems adequate to express my gratitude to you all. You most certainly caught me (and Ashley, too, I think) by surprise last Sunday morning. Y'all certainly know how to keep a secret! It was funny hearing the stories later from Andy and Jerry concerning the two messages that got sent out on Friday and how some got the second message "Don't tell them. It's a secret." before they got the first message explaining what the secret was - hahaha! Jerry said he never felt more like a drug dealer in his life than on Sunday morning as people were slipping him cash that he was trying to keep hidden from me as he was talking to me! All I can say is that you all made us feel most appreciated; thank you all! I will also say that I could not do what I do without the LORD and your faithful prayers, encouragement, support, grace, help, and the awesome pastoral and support staff that you have blessed me with; again, thank you.

I would like to reiterate that I know God has something amazing in store for FRBC and I am so looking forward to seeing what He does through us as we seek to be His church here in our little part of "Jerusalem" (see Acts 1:8). I am truly blessed to be your pastor and I pray for each of you regularly (see Philippians 1:3-6). I try to make myself available to you whenever you need me, but sometimes I fall short; please forgive me when I do (There are no perfect pastors). My greatest desire is to see God glorified in all that we say and do here at Franklin Road and I pray that this church will be a shining light to all in this community and beyond. If I can ever do anything for any of you, please let me know, as it is my privilege to serve God by serving you. I love you all and thank you again for allowing me to be your pastor.

Something to think about as we go about our week.

Love, prayer, and blessings,
Trace
